Pastor's Note

April 6, 2024

Good morning and a happy Sabbath to each of you! A warm welcome to all—guests, students, friends and family. We are honored that you chose to be with us this morning. I know you've heard this month's weather rhyme: "April showers bring May flowers." Indeed we are having showers, and it seems certain that spring has arrived in the Shenandoah Valley. The bursting blooms and flowers are wonderful reminders of our caring Heavenly Father. However, whatever the weather, we can enjoy the blessings of worship and fellowship.

This morning we give a heartfelt recognition to the many firefighters and other first responders who worked tirelessly to contain the forest fires that stormed the Massanutten Mountains two weeks ago. We are blessed to have such a group of dedicated men and women who keep our community safe from harm and danger. The words of Kathrine Bates are most fitting: "O beautiful for heroes proved in liberating strife, who more than self their country loved and mercy more than life!" Our prayers and appreciation are with you. On behalf of this campus and community we say, "Thank you, thank you, thank you!"

We are still in the season of celebrating Christ's resurrection. This morning we are delighted to have Shenandoah Valley Academy's music department tell the resurrection story through song and spoken word. Thank you, Daniel and Mónica Biaggi and Kelly Wiedemann, for planning, preparing, and practicing with our students as they share this story in praise and worship.

Also we are blessed to have guest pianist, Mary Grace, with us this morning and this evening for a 7:00 concert. It is our prayer that our music and meditation will be acceptable in the sight of our Risen Lord and Savior.

With all of the good busyness on our campus, we must continue to hold one another up in prayer and the blessed hope. Let us press on to disciple our young people through cross generational-ministry. We are still one campus with one mission.

Be blessed this Sabbath!

-Pastor Buz
