Pastor's Note

October 23, 2021

"Welcome to the New Market Seventh-day Adventist Church! We are honored you've chosen to worship with us today. Whether you are here in-person or online via our livestream, we pray that God will richly bless you and your home through our ministry in word and song.

Today will be the third and final part of our series entitled, "The Christian and Politics." (If you missed parts 1 & 2, you can watch them by going to YouTube and searching for "New Market Adventist." This sermon series is posted prominently towards the top of our channel homepage.) It's been a fascinating journey as we have searched the Bible for key principles that address the complex political world we live in.

As we round out the series with Part 3, we will be tackling the question that many of you have been waiting weeks to hear the answer to: How do we know when we need to dive in deeper to politics? Tens of thousands of Christians today are convinced that we live in an age that demands Christians engage heart and soul with various candidates, parties, platforms, etc. Are they correct? Is now the time to march on Washington to let our voice as Christians be heard? If it is, how would we know that? Are there Bible principles that can show us when—and even how much—we ought to engage in earthly politics?

Join us during the sermon time today for Part 3 of, "The Christian and Politics: When Just Voting Won't Do."
